

THIS MONTH AT KHPC—July, 2017

JULY 2—God Really Does Provide/Communion

Today in worship we focus on the story of God's asking Abraham to sacrifice Isaac. The Grace Gospel Choir will be offering two anthems and communion will be celebrated.

JULY 9—An Invitation

“Come unto Me, all you who are heavy laden” is of Jesus' more familiar and comforting statements. The sermon today will be about this passage from Matthew and Leanne Greenberg will be singing that aria from the Messiah.

JULY 16—What Will You Do?/Visitors Sunday

The eighth chapter of Romans reminds us that there is a lot that we don't know. Come and find out what we don't know and how God helps us. The Summer Family Choir will sing.

JULY 23—Learning to See

For many of us, the only time we feel we encounter God is in the sanctuary on Sunday. How can we see God in our everyday lives?

JULY 30—Not Just for Funerals

In many cases, we tend to feel that some parts of the Bible and the hymnal are only used at certain times—like funerals. The problem is that this tends to give us only one exposure to them. Romans 8:26-39 is one of these passages—come and hear a little more about it.
